Coffee Facts

From the Editor's desk!

There is always a first time. ALWAYS.

The first rains, the first dance, the first crush
& Oh! The first date.

We are just as excited launching our newsletter.
The first ever from the Brewberrys family.

It's surreal.

This coffee I'm sipping at the moment has become special. It's with me on my journey - towards you.

If you are reading this, this issue is dedicated to you. To your friends. To that special person who you hang out with probably in every café across town. But today, you are here. It's special.

WHAT ARE YOU?

- ANONYMOUS

A young woman went to her mother and told her about her life and how things were so hard for her. She did not know how she was going to make it and wanted to give up. She was tired of fighting and struggling.

Her mother took her to the kitchen. She filled three pots with water. In the first she placed carrots, in the second she placed eggs, and in the last she placed ground coffee beans.

She let them sit and boil without saying a word. In about twenty minutes she turned off the burners. She fished the carrots out and placed them in a bowl. She pulled the eggs out and placed them in a bowl. Then she ladled the coffee out and placed it in a bowl.

Turning to her daughter, she asked, "Tell me, what do you see?"
"Carrots, eggs, and coffee," she replied.

She brought her closer and asked her to feel the carrots. She did and noted that they were soft and mushy. She then asked her to take an egg and break it. After pulling off the shell, she observed the hardened egg. Finally, she asked her to sip the coffee.

The daughter smiled as she tasted its deep flavour and inhaled its rich aroma. The daughter then asked, "What's the point, mother?"

Her mother explained that each of these objects had faced the same adversity - boiling water - but each reacted differently. The carrot went in strong, hard and unrelenting. However, after being subjected to the boiling water, it became weak. The egg had been fragile. Its thin, outer shell had protected its liquid interior, but after sitting through the boiling water, its inside became hardened.

The ground coffee beans were unique, however. After they were in the boiling water they had changed the water.

"Which are you?" she asked her daughter.
"When adversity knocks on your door, how do you respond? Are you a carrot, an egg, or a coffee bean?"

Think of this: Which am I? Am I the carrot that seems strong? But with pain and adversity, do I wilt and lose my strength? Am I the egg that starts with a malleable heart, but changes with the heat? Did I have a fluid spirit but, after a death, a breakup, a financial hardship or some other trial, have I become hardened and stiff? Does my shell look the same, but on the inside am I bitter and tough with a stiff spirit and a hardened heart? or am I like the coffee bean? The bean actually changes the hot water - the very circumstance that brings the adversity, the pain, the hardship - into something quite wonderful. When the water gets hot, it releases its fragrance and flavor. If you are like the bean, when things are at their worst, you get better, and change the situation around you for the better.

When the hours are the darkest and trials are their greatest do you elevate to another level? How do you handle adversity?

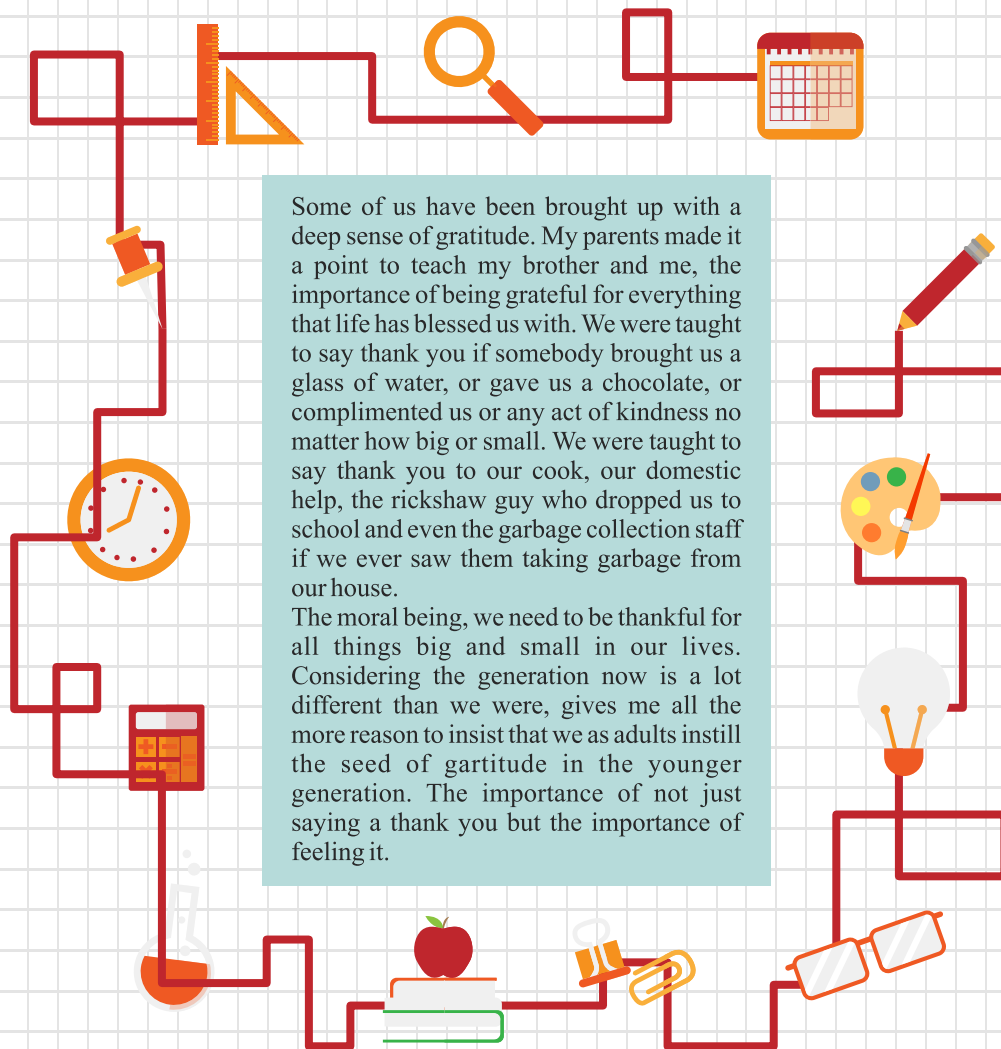

ARE YOU A CARROT, AN EGG, OR A COFFEE BEAN?

WAKE UP! SMELL THE COFFEE & KNOW YOUR WORTH!

GRATITUDE

TEACH YOUR FAMILY TO BE GRATEFUL.

Some of us have been brought up with a deep sense of gratitude. My parents made it a point to teach my brother and me, the importance of being grateful for everything that life has blessed us with. We were taught to say thank you if somebody brought us a glass of water, or gave us a chocolate, or complimented us or any act of kindness no matter how big or small. We were taught to say thank you to our cook, our domestic help, the rickshaw guy who dropped us to school and even the garbage collection staff if we ever saw them taking garbage from our house.

The moral being, we need to be thankful for all things big and small in our lives. Considering the generation now is a lot different than we were, gives me all the more reason to insist that we as adults instill the seed of gratitude in the younger generation. The importance of not just saying a thank you but the importance of feeling it.

GRATITUDE CORNER

“ At the end of the day, let there be no excuses, no explanations, no regrets.
- Steve Maraboli”

“ Let us be grateful to the people who make us happy; they are the charming gardeners who make our souls blossom.
- Marcel Proust”

“ Make a pact with yourself today to not be defined by your past. Sometimes the greatest thing to come out of all your hard work isn't what you get for it, but what you become for it. Shake things up today! Be You...Be Free...Share.
- Steve Maraboli”

“ The more you recognize and express gratitude for the things you have, the more things you will have to express gratitude for.
- Zig Ziglar”

“ Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more. If you concentrate on what you don't have, you will never, ever have enough.
- Oprah Winfrey”

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

Mitesh Rajput

Designation – Brewer
Location – Vadodara

Role Model – Sachin Tendulkar and his School Principal Ms. Rashmi Mehta

About Mitesh – Mitesh joined Brewberrys Café - Vadodara in October 2013. Life is not easy for him. He has his own physical short-comings. Being deaf-mute, for him to essay a role in an Industry that requires immense interaction with customers, was not easy. However, he has risen up to the challenge and he is the most loved of our café team.

Our regular guest often ask about him when he isn't on duty. The way he has overcome his challenges and blended in his role of customer service, shows the mettle he is made of.

There is a lot to learn from him. He teaches us every day that no matter what life gives you, take it with a pinch of humor. No matter what your weakness, turn that into your strength.

He believes that no matter who you are, if you are passionate about your work, nothing will bring you down. We are proud to have him on board.

Note : At Brewberrys we strive to provide equal employment opportunities for all. It does not matter what your shortcomings are. If you are passionate about your work, if you have a dream to excel in the F&B Sector, come, be a part of team Brewberrys. For employment opportunities, please drop us a mail at hr@brewberrys.com

CAFÉ OF THE MONTH

- BREWBERRYS DEHRADUN

Situated in the picturesque Dehradun, Brewberrys opened its outlet in November 2014, with Mr. Priyank Maheshwari, the Franchisee.

The city is beautiful with its never-ending tea and Litchi orchards. It is also home to Basmati rice plantations. Dehradun also hosts headquarters of many National Institutes and Organizations like ONGC, Survey Of India, Forest Research Institute and Indian Institute of Petroleum.

The city is a favourite with parents for boarding schools. It is home to the famous Doon school and the Welham Girls High School.

Brewberrys is located at the busy Ballupur Chowk. We have a lot of tourists visiting our café daily.

What sets Brewberrys apart from other existing cafes, is the fact that the food is prepared fresh, at the café. We also have a Guitar in house, board games and wifi.

The next time you visit Dehradun, do drop by at Brewberrys.

Priyank Maheshwari, Owner -

I wanted to open a coffee shop at Dehradun but didn't have any idea about it. After researching a little, I went ahead Brewberrys The Coffee Bar. Since then, there has been no turning back.

The best part of the café is the live food preparation. This way, the customers get everything freshly prepared. Unlike other cafes, Brewberrys attracts every age group as they get facilities like games, guitars, wifi, etc. to enjoy with the order they place.

Brewberrys is the best place to hang out with your friends, family. No matter what your age or profession, there is something here for everybody.

BREWSOME REVIEWS

-Ashish Dhingra
Model Town, New Delhi

On my trip to Mussoorie with my family, I had a halt at Brewberrys – The Coffee Bar, Dehradun, where I had the best coffee of my life. The fact that they prepare their food live, was like an icing on the cake.

“Brewberrys”, the place where quality & leisure blends in a way that the young generation can’t resist to control their emotional quotient in a fascinating manner. The support system of the café like the staff & the owner are like family now.

Brewberrys is one place that can’t be resisted. We love it.

Dehradun

-Aman Sharma,
Dehradun

The only incentive to come to Brewberrys is the coffee. I have been to so many coffee shops but here it is the best. The staff knows their customers very well.

- Piyush Bharadwaj, Dehradun

I am a coffee lover & find the best brewed coffee in Dehradun at Brewberrys. I like the ambience best suited to hangout with my friends, play games, some music, snacks, all at one place where I feel comfortable. Free wifi is a bonus here.

- Piyush Jain, Dehradun

Best place for dating & hanging out with friends. Quality of food & beverages are great. Games, Wifi are added bonus. Staff is very good, cooperative.

YOUR BODY, YOUR TEMPLE.

TAKING CARE OF YOU IS THE FIRST STEP TO EVERYTHING ELSE YOU NEED.

Almost everyone I meet is lost in this fast paced world. It's crazy how badly we need to run from one place to other. No matter where we are at the moment, we always have to be somewhere else. It's crazy, and at times unavoidable. Through this marathon of life, we need to remember that the only way forward is by taking care of us. If you are strong emotionally and physically, these everyday challenges and turmoils don't and cannot take its toll on you. The moment you ignore your body, that's when problems start. Diabetes, obesity, depression, insomnia etc. If you want to be who you want to be five years from now, be who you are supposed to be today. FIT and Stress free. For that you need to have a balanced mind and body. I recommend the below:

1. GREEN TEA –

You may have heard a thousand benefits of green tea, and I'm not going to repeat that. I need not advocate what everybody already knows. However, I do recommend the number of times you need to have green tea. ALL THE TIME. Now I realize, healthy eating is not always a choice. With that, out the window goes your idea of fitness. What I normally suggest people is to keep a hot water kettle and a green tea packet at your office. Every time you need to go out for office lunch, meetings, evening at the bar or various other places where healthy food is not an option, have a huge mug of Green tea before leaving. That way, you are full before you leave and will eat less than you normally do. This decreases the unhealthy food intake. Come evening and you are hungry again, well Green tea again and a couple of Digestives. Healthy, and tasty together. Can it get any better?

2. SHAKE IT BABY –

Most of us these days are stuck with desk jobs. There is no physical movement. It is thus important to be involved in some physical activity daily. Do whatever you like best, but shake your body. Most people go to the gym and that's great. But I'm not a gym person. I hate those boring sweaty indoors (no offense.) So I, play Tennis. One hour every day. It's so liberating. Pick a sport you like. Go play that every day. That way you won't feel it's another task on your list. If that's too much for you, chuck everything and put on your sneakers and run. Just run. For half an hour everyday. Just simple, plain running. Now you don't want to leave the house, because you are lazy to or the weather is bad or whatever else.... Then do some sit-ups at home. Begin with 30, go to 60 and slowly to hundred. Ditch the elevator. Take the stairs. Do whatever you want. JUST SHAKE YOUR BODY! Although, no matter what you do, if you have physical complications. I suggest you consult your physician before the same.

3. PAMPER YOURSELF –

Everybody is leading a stressful life. Bringing up kids, making money, taking care of elderly, raising a child alone, managing a company, in between jobs, I mean whatever. There is some stress all of us go through. It's important that through it, you take care of yourself.

For ladies, I recommend, go for a body massage once a month. Get some pedicure done, go for a spa. Do whatever that fits your budget. It's not only important for your body physically, but taking care of yourself actually boosts you emotionally.

For gentlemen, you could go for body massages too. Or go fishing with you buddies. Or golfing or camp in some place overnight, in the tents, under the skies. Whatever you do, spend some time with yourself. This will stable you emotionally, and you will get back to your role refreshed.

SLEEP LIKE A BABY

YOUR BODY NEEDS REST. WHETHER YOU NEED IT OR NOT.

It's very important. A good night sleep. I remember as kids, my mother made sure that we went to bed early, my brother and me. We were not allowed to watch TV after 9:00pm. Back then we didn't argue either. But as we grow older, we get aggressive, offensive and even defiant in our sleeping habits. It's important that we understand that we reside in our body. We are not machines. We need to rest and give our body the time to rejuvenate.

Most of us these days are on our iPhones and Blackberrys till late night, and wake up feeling drained even after 6 hours sleep. That is bound to happen. We need to switch-off before we can sleep. Now how is that possible?

Well!
I'll tell you how.

1. GADGET FREE ZONE –

Make your bedroom a gadget free zone. It means, do not take your tablets or your cell phones to bed. Leave them on your table. No matter what the temptation, do not keep it beside you. Even if it beeps, ignore. If it rings, ignore. If there is ever an emergency, (god forbid) most likely the caller will call again. Back to back calls should make you wanna get it. Other than that, stay put. When you have no phones with you, you will converse better with your partner, sleep better. It's a win - win.

2. AVOID CAFFEINE AFTER 5:00pm –

Caffeine can keep you wide awake and your neurons alert longer than you need it to. So unless you need to pull an all-nighter, to make a last minute report for Mr. Narendra Modi for his visit tomorrow, I suggest, avoid coffee after 5:00 pm and take a step towards sleeping better.

3. ENLIGHTEN LIGHT –

Too much of bright light actually delays your sleep. That's why most offices have these bright tube lights, to keep you awake and alert. Cosy up your bedroom with soft light from night lamps. It's not only a whole lot easier on your eyes, but it's romantic too. With its soothing effect, you are sure to sleep better.

4. PICK THE RIGHT MATTRESS –

The right kind of mattress is the basic essential for a sound sleep. What mattress suits you best is your personal call. Saying from my experience, I personally do not like spring mattress. I guess it has something to do with my back, but every time I sleep on a spring mattress, I toss and turn a lot and wake up to bad back-aches. I know a friend who cannot sleep on any other mattress but a spring mattress. So it's totally your call. Just make sure, you are comfortable in what you sleep on.

5. DRESS LIGHT –

When going to bed, always dress comfortably, and keep it light. Except for extreme cold in the northern regions during winter, India isn't a highly dramatic climatic location. Sleep wearing light pyjamas and loose t-shirts. The more comfortable you are, the better you are likely to sleep.

SUMMER READY YOUR WARDROBE

THE ABSOLUTE ESSENTIALS FOR THE CHIC SUMMERS.

Summers make us scream at our denims. Even our favorite ones, the ones we sleep in, even those annoy us in summers. Here's my quick fix for your wardrobes this summer.

1. L.W.D. –

My instant recommendation and personal favourite - LWD, a.k.a. Little White Dress. They are so light, pretty, easy to wear day to night, and goes perfectly with all skin tones and all ages. They come in any shape, size, style and length and suits everybody no matter what body shape.

2. SUNGLASSES –

An absolutely absolute must. These protect your eyes against the harsh UV rays, help you drive better, and make you look gorgeously stylish.

3. LIGHT DENIM –

These are the undeniable monsters for your wardrobe. The light denim look and fabric is great as a cuff roll shirt, vest, summer dress or a short summer skirt. Whatever your comfort, you cannot ignore having one.

4. GO HAWAII –

Floral prints, pineapple prints, palm tree prints. Whatever you like. These are colourful, catchy and a crazy choice for your wardrobe. It's best worn loose, short and wild.

5. HALTERNECKS –

If you are blessed with a gorgeous narrow bone structure (which I am not), or amazingly toned arms (Nah. Don't have this either), you are lucky. I recommend you those neon color halter neck tops. They flatter your shape and give you those killer looks. Go on... make me jealous, swoon the guys.

6. GO SHORT –

Ditch your denims. Wear shorts. Floral, denim, linen or cotton. Whatever it be. Flaunt your legs while the season excuses you to do so.

LET'S HAVE SOME FUN,
THIS SUMMER!

SUMMER READY YOUR SKIN

THE ABSOLUTE ESSENTIALS FOR PAMPERING YOUR SKIN THIS SUMMER.

We all know summers can be a highly unforgiving on our skin. It gets tanned, dull and lifeless. Below are few ways to liven your skin and get the glow you always needed.

1. HYDRATE –

The scorching Indian summer heat is highly unforgiving. Its harsh on your body and skin. One thing to keep in mind is to keep your body hydrated through the day. Drink a lot of water. For people like me, for whom water kind of gets boring after a glass or two, I recommend Nimboo Pani. The lemon will add the much needed freshness and the salt and sugar will keep your body nourished. Whatever your choice of juice or liquids, keep yourself hydrated.

2. CLEANSE YOUR FACE –

Summers tend to do maximum damage to your face skin, obviously because it's the most delicate and also the most exposed area. Wash your face at least thrice a day. It cools the skin and replenishes it much needed water. Just pat dry your skin instead of rubbing it with a towel. That way your skin is sure to stay soft and supple.

3. SUN PROTECT –

Because the sun is harsh and blazing hot, I recommend, you use a sunscreen. I personally use a Neutrogena Dry-Touch sunblock 50+, because I have a lot of running around. If you are the lucky ones to spend your afternoons in Air conditioned offices, a sunscreen with SPF 15 is just fine.

4. MOISTURIZE –

You may think that you need a face cream only in winters. Wrong. Your face needs to be moisturized even during summers. Just ensure it's a water based moisturizer.

5. GO LIGHT –

Summers are hot, sticky and sweaty. Wear light make up. In sense of colours, wear a pink lipstick, light pink eye shadow and may be just a bronzer. Avoid dark shade lipsticks and extra dark kohl. Just a thin line of an eyeliner should work wonders.

6. EXFOLIATE –

It's a necessity. To exfoliate your skin. There are various products available in the market. My personal favorite is Biotique. But if you are the 'home remedy' kind of person, try making a simple scrub of gram flour, turmeric, sandalwood powder, rose water and saffron.

7. SAY NO TO COLA –

Our first instinct to quench our thirst in summers is to instantly grab a can of cola. DO NOT make that blunder. Colas are very high in sugar content. It may feel fresh momentarily, but the sugar is going to dry your throat sooner. Moreover, it's not healthy either. It's taking you away from your bikini body. Have fresh juices with ice, or Nimboo pani, or Nimboo soda if you need the fizz.

SAY HELLO
TO SUMMER!

INDIAN SUMMER

THE GORGEOUS WAY TO A COOL HOME.

I love my home. I own it. I Love it. I live it. Every morning I feel grateful and blessed and wonderful. I live on the 9th floor, right below the terrace. The French windows, the view, and the top floor is amazing. That's till summers. Because it's the 9th floor, it heats quickly. And before you know it, it's a damn oven. Air conditioners are a blessing yes! But the crisp fresh feeling doesn't come with that. So, over time I've tried to get the fresh cool factors in summers too. And it wakes me smiling yet again this summer.

1. DECLUTTER –

Decluttering is an answer to feeling of a free flow summer. Not only does it create an illusion of space, it also creates a calm atmosphere. With everything neat, clean and tidy around you, you are sure to feel relaxed and calm.

2. PAINT IT WHITE –

If you are the kinds to experiment with various paints on your walls through varying seasons, I suggest, rip it all off and go all white. The white paint will heat your walls lesser and give you a calm, serene, peaceful feel.

3. BLUE –

Use blue curtains. They cut the harsh sunlight and filter the sunlight entering your home in a cool hue. The blue curtain creates a sense of calm as opposed to a yellow which creates an illusion of sun light inside.

4. GO HAWAIIIN –

Floral prints, pineapple prints, palm tree prints. Whatever you like. These are colourful, catchy and a crazy choice for your cushions. They give a very holiday-ey, beachy feel. It also kind-of makes you feel happy and jumpy.

5. RUGS –

Get rid of those traditional carpets and opt instead for cotton rugs. The kinds available across any furnishing stores. They come in various prints, patterns and colours and feel much cooler than carpets.

6. KHUS MATS –

For those of you, who do not have Ac's covering every aspect of your house, hang khus mats outside windows. The hot, harsh, summer air will cool through the khus mat. Just remember to hang the khus mats outside, because they give off a lot of grass. Remember to keep them damp too.

SPIRIT OF ENTREPRENEURSHIP

It's always inspiring & impressive when people dare to take a risk - to take a plunge, risk it all and start their own venture. It takes a lot of grit determination & belief. So in each issue, we will feature one of many start ups, across the nation. Give a little recognition & motivation they rightly deserve.

FEATURED STORY - ACTONATE

Actonate was found in 2010 by a young group of 'Barodians' passionate about Software & the Web, initially started as a freelance based web development company. The company spent its first 2 years in providing web development based services to SMEs in the city and slowly started growing and gained recognition from enterprises in the city.

Now in 2015, with a team of 20 developers/designers working at their office in Makarpura, the company is now outperforming in the field of software & product development by providing full stack development on mobile & cloud platforms. With a client portfolio of more than 200 companies across India and abroad, Actonate is well on its way to change the IT landscape in the city in the coming years.

Starting from this year, Actonate is also planning to get itself involved in social activities around the city especially in educating children and the youth in computers & IT.

The team has a lively office in Makarpura, where you can find them at work (& play!).

Shoaib Merchant (Co-founder) takes care of the technical backbone of the company. He has recently graduated from Vellore Institute of Technology and is now working full-time with Actonate. He is actively involved in the company's major development projects and also spends ample amount of time training his team at the office in new platforms & technologies. He can be found at his workstation in the office with his head surrounded with codes, algorithms and architectures or at home reading a nice book.

On the other hand, Pratik Desai (Co-founder) leads the company's marketing & management side and strongly believes that Vadodara has great potential in its youth given the right opportunities especially in IT sector. He is the one-man-army of the company when it comes to marketing & client relation management and is usually found running around meetings or on the phone!

Note: In the coming edition, we would like to cover start up stories from your town. If you know of somebody worth a feature, do write to us at brewtimes@brewberrys.com

BOOK REVIEW

GONE GIRL GILLIAN FLYNN

Gone Girl is about a married couple - Amy and Nick Dunne whose marriage is slowly disintegrating. On the day of their fifth anniversary, Amy disappears under mysterious circumstances. It is hinted that she has been abducted and possibly killed, with all clues pointing towards Nick as the prime suspect. What has happened to Amy? Is Nick really behind his wife's disappearance?

The book spins a tale of two twisted brains caught up in something that makes the read an intriguing at the same time a weird one. When you least expect there are twists that leave you spell bound and appreciate the intricacies of the whole plot. No doubt it is a thriller worth buying and shelving in your house.

This book will punch you in the face with a whole bunch of ugly truth about us as humans and what we make out of our relationships.

It makes you look at yourself in the mirror, and very rarely a book manages to do that. Dark, Grey, Dusted and unquestioningly dramatic.

Totally recommended thriller over a cold Mojito.

We are continuously looking for people who thrive on high-energy environments and are as passionate about their work as they are about their lives.

We value Talent, Intelligence, Team-Spirit & Diversity.

We are seeking candidates for the following positions :

- Café Managers
